

Imaginary Song

Morphine

I live in an imaginary town
I got imaginary people all around me falling down
And I go to an imaginary school
I got imaginary homework and imaginary rules

Is it my imagination or is nothing more sublime
Than a crushing velvet second of imaginary time?

And I work in an imaginary job
I can't imagine how I ever held this job so long
And I pray to an imaginary god
Yes I pray with all I got, he's unimaginably strong

Is it my imagination or is nothing more sublime
Than a crushing velvet second of imaginary time?

Imaginary time
Imaginary time
Imaginary time

(One, two, three, four)

And I pray to an imaginary god
I pray with all I got, he's unimaginably strong
And I live in an imaginary place
I got imaginary people living all across my face

Is it my imagination or is nothing more sublime
Than a crushing velvet second of imaginary time?

Imaginary time
Imaginary time
Imaginary time

An imaginary moment unimaginably long
And now we're at the end of my imaginary song
