

Bad Situations

Morray

I done been in bad situations
But now a nigga up now

I done been in bad situations
Now a nigga up now
Plenty times I thought I wouldn't make it
Life isn't so tough now
I just stood tall with them hitting at my knees
I can only thank God for him choosing to save me

Eating bacon with the grits my breakfast is so legit
Niggas getting hella money I'm barely paying the rent
Now my bills super paid I'm working like I'ma slave
But it's okay cuz my money blowing up like it's a grenade
Getting stupid paid but I tell these niggas to watch me
I would never ever let a pussy nigga stop me
Getting money I'm talking bout all the profits
Money fall out the wallet they know when a nigga got it
I'm getting big bread yo bitch giving me big head
Full belly fuck hunger a nigga gone stay fed
Big dreams and visions I gotta stay ahead
Bad bitches with big booties making a mess
Done with the moping I'm done with the hoping I'ma change shit
Being too relaxed can really end up being dangerous
Money only made it harder to deal with the lame shit
Tryna be different but still end up doing the same shit

I done been in bad situations
Now a nigga up now
Plenty times I thought I wouldn't make it
Life isn't so tough now
I just stood tall with them hitting at my knees
I can only thank God for him choosing to save me

Hey mama we rich
Everything we got legit
Bout to buy you a new Benz
Hide yo face in the tent
You will never have to stress about a dollar or cent
Lady I got you til the end that's on all three of my kids
Not one for the dramatics but I'm checking my schematics
Cuz it seem like everything is finally falling into place
Now I gotta take a stance
Stepped up and I became a man
After failing so many times and falling on my face
But I gotta smile cuz I can't seem ungrateful
This is what I wanted what I needed what I prayed for Now I can finally fucking smile bitch need I say more
Yeah it still sucks I'm finally happy and my heart sore
Heartbroken to pieces upfolded show the creases
It's touching the funny bone these niggas is so facetious
I'm stepping in my role now I'm practicing what I'm preaching
Colder than the winter breeze never switching with the season

I done been in bad situations
Now a nigga up now
Plenty times I thought I wouldn't make it

Life isn't so tough now
I just stood tall with them hitting at my knees
I can only thank God for him choosing to save me
