

Bigger Things

Morray

See I been chasing this dream for a while And now this light at the tunnel is brighter than it seemed in a while
It just feels good to do better than I did last year
It just feels good knowing now that I'm crying happy tears, I s hed now
It feels good to hear 'em say I'm snapping It feels good knowing that every song I drop is slapping, yeah

Yeah, you heard some of my story, tried to let you inside my li fe (Yeah)
It took a while I was a child but I'm finally starting to get t hings right
It was my fault most times, fucked up all of mine
But now I'm grown and I'm on my grind
The other half of things, I have anxiety Can't fuck up my one chance to shine Everybody told a nigga he would never fucking make it Couldn't have been talking 'bout my future, guess you must've b een mistaken
You can't call it tough love because all I'm hearing is hate Swallow your pride, bitch, don't lie tell me that I'm not amazi ng
