

High Price

Murray

They say love don't cost a thing
That's lies
It cost time that you can't get back
High price
Gave it cha all now you got none left
Nice try
Everything happens for a reason
That's life

I can't be how you need me baby, time come wit a fee
Heart colder than a glacier that you can't warm with a fleece
I been focused on a mill dream chasin like I'm meek
I done stood 10 toes down still had to face defeat
I've been looking for an empty soul that I can fill wit love
Kno I'm posed to be a gangsta lately I just need a hug
I'm surrounded by some gangstas so I gotta remain tuff
Nigga see you acting soft they gone think yo ass a bluff
People saying that I'm needy, even call me greedy
Tryna play the victim, be the bad guy if need be
If loving me is hard then walk away and make it easy
Not locking no one down fuck a cuff fuck a free me
Get away ASAP, finding me a RiRi
Help me build the brand and put the money in a CD
Life a movie TV, get the feel in 3D
Been cut so low now wound is three feet deep

They say love don't cost a thing
That's lies
It cost time that you can't get back
High price
Gave it cha all now you got none left

I almost fell in love like a couple times
Silent nigga I ain't tryna play
I spent about a thousand on my kick, a hunnid thousand on my neck
My chain worth more than a Patek
Can't tell you about no confession, girlfriend, never had one
I ain't gon lie to you, baby you a bad one
Really deep inside her, I hope you be down to ride
If we really catch a vibe just imagine us goin past em
Niggas play with you can't imagine cause I'ma blast em (boom)
Let me know you want this forever or just a fast run
Other bitches mad at her, they like why you jack em
I think they wanna fuck a young nigga cause he platinum
Hoes, I attract em, flows, I adapt em
Hits still comin cause these shows I done packed em, at them
Ain't too much that you can say bout that one
When I was tryna love a bitch it only put me back one

They say love don't cost a thing
That's lies
It cost time that you can't get back
High price
Gave it cha all now you got none left

Nice try
Everything happens for a reason
