Mistakes

Morray

In the end, oh
In the end, show me your colors
In the end, oh
Whatever happens
Show me your colors

Money will never change me
Ben franks for the dubs, that's how I change things
Two-faced friends acting different
These niggas acting like changelings
I'm getting lit 'cause a nigga know I got to maintain things
Call it sustaining, 'cause if I fall who are they blaming?
Pockets full of hundreds, never thought that I could have it
Living my best life, stress free, finally happened
Don't gotta cap shit, now I'm making it off of rapping
Eating good, went from ramen to Wagyu with my salads

It's fly shit, sitting high shit
Champagne on the plane 'cause I know they stock it
Fan rushing, scream my name like a fucking mosh pit
Give 'em hugs, but not dumb you know gudda cocked it
Got everything I need, it feels so right
Clear my conscience, forgive me, and get my soul right
It's hard to try and figure out how to control life
But that's the problem 'cause I can only control mine
Time heals all, that's a lie
'Cause I still see the pain every time I close my eyes
Time heals all, that's a lie
'Cause I still see the pain every time I close my eyes

Money will never change me
Ben franks for the dubs, that's how I change things
Two-faced friends acting different
These niggas acting like changelings
I'm getting lit 'cause a nigga know I got to maintain things
Call it sustaining, 'cause if I fall who are they blaming?

Don't gotta cap shit, now I'm making it off of rapping
Eating good, went from ramen to Wagyu with my salads

How can time heal all if you ain't put no work towards it?
And you want a million dollars, but don't wanna work for it
Niggas looking for a purpose, but don't wanna search for it
Walking slowly on your path, someone tell 'em "Run Forest"
Niggas wanna hand out, but don't wanna get 'em dirty
How you living with ya mama and yo ass is almost 30?
How you borrow from your friends? Can't afford to pay 'em back
And the shit they need for free, you can't even give 'em that Man, I been that kinda nigga, I'm just glad that I'm delivered
No more asking for a plate, I'll just have that shit delivered
Maneuvered around the grass, fuck a snake, watch how they slither
Phone check to his ribs, leave the poker in his liver
Done with the street shit, beef shit
I'll just pay and delete shit
Capeesh shit
Made man soon never repeat this

For the record I've been this way so ain't no new me, bitch
Got new new bling, shoutout Lauren and rest in peace Nip

Money will never change me
Ben franks for the dubs, that's how I change things
Two-faced friends acting different
These niggas acting like changelings
