

Nothing Now

Morray

Tell me I'm wrong if I pack my shit and leave
So tired hearing all the things that you don't need
When I know the only thing you need is me
It's just sad 'cause you too blind to see
So many people they would love to have your spot
Don't wanna hear it you've been fucking up a lot
'Posed to be solid as a mother fucking rock
I'm only sad because it turns out that you not

Ripley's Believe It or Not!
Hot as a motherfucking meteor rock
Hop on the dick, make her bust out the Glock
Head is on point, she suck dick like a thot
She was being deceiving and being misleading
Every name in her phone is a motherfucking guy
Bitch, she got so many brothers
Her momma and daddy must be fucking around the clock
Ain't no love in this
I just fucked the bitch, that's what I told myself
But I love the bitch
That's why I cuff the bitch, now I'm by myself
It's mop and glow
I ain't got time no more, taking off the watch
Now you for the streets and I was sad to see how you embrace the block
If you find another nigga, he can't do it like I can Money was your motivation, walk the plank for a grand
Looking foolish, acting clueless, like you just don't understand
Thought you was moving like a boss but was employed by a man
Can't believe you tryna to play me
That's what I get for always tryna save these Bitches who don't really need the saving
Leave after you have nothing in your savings

Tell me I'm wrong if I pack my shit and leave
So tired hearing all the things that you don't need
When I know the only thing you need is me
It's just sad 'cause you too blind to see
So many people they would love to have your spot
Don't wanna hear it you've been fucking up a lot
'Posed to be solid as a mother fucking rock
I'm only sad because it turns out that you not

Down bad, now you looking for a handout 'cause things didn't go your way
I'm the man now, 'cause you really need a band now 'cause your shit cutoff t oday
Where the dudes at that be paying you to do that thing we did everyday?
Bitch you blew that but already knew that so girl get out my face
It's a different time, it's my time to shine
I just copped a Rollie
You not mine, so don't waste your time
Act like you don't know me
That nice guy that you used to like
I no longer know 'em
Held him down and ripped out his heart
I feel bad for homey
Since you been away I've been down and lonely
Since you been away it's been only fuck you

Tell me I'm wrong if I pack my shit and leave
So tired hearing all the things that you don't need
When I know the only thing you need is me
It's just sad 'cause you too blind to see
So many people they would love to have your spot
Don't wanna hear it you've been fucking up a lot
'Posed to be solid as a mother fucking rock
I'm only sad because it turns out that you not
