

Out The Hole

Morray

Yeah
Yeah, oh
Yeah, oh
Yeah, oh

From the bottom to the top, a nigga made it out of the motherfuckin' hole
New car, big crib, this ain't how I used to live, nigga, no
You be actin' like you niggas know, but you niggas don't really fuckin' know
Red light, green light, nigga, one, two, three, bitch, I'm always on go
From the bottom to the top, a nigga made it out of the motherfuckin' hole
New car, big crib, this ain't how I used to live, nigga, no
You be actin' like you niggas know, but you niggas don't really fuckin' know
Red light, green light—

Took a step back, now I'm back in Almost gave up, bitch, I'm lying, man, I'm cappin'
Had to load it up, ten toes, now I'm strapped in
Made a couple million off the motherfuckin' rapping
City National, I tap in Money made me lazy
Make it in my sleep, so I be sleepin' like a baby
So much money, probably have another baby
Many Benjamins, it's gon' be comfortable to raise 'em
This feeling is amazing
Damn, nigga, talk your shit
Never in a million years I thought I'd I live like this
I done cried a million tears just to drip like this
And I emerged from the pain, so I earned my shit
I mean, I'm grown now, I got clear goals
Got that "too far away but right here" goals
Hate to throw it, that don't mean I gotta fear rolls (Ayy)
Prayin' hard, tryna see how far my fear go (Oh, oh, oh)

From the bottom to the top, a nigga made it out of the motherfuckin' hole
New car, big crib, this ain't how I used to live, nigga, no
You be actin' like you niggas know, but you niggas don't really fuckin' know
Red light, green light, nigga, one, two, three, bitch, I'm always on go
From the bottom to the top, a nigga made it out of the motherfuckin' hole
New car, big crib, this ain't how I used to live, nigga, no
You be actin' like you niggas know, but you niggas don't really fuckin' know
Red light, green light—

Yeah, back again like I made part two
I'm really fuckin' livin' how y'all niggas say y'all do
Got that cheese in my smile like I ate fondue
Check my designer, fuck a panda, nigga, no bamboo
I mean, got my kid livin' better than me
It's a site for sore eyes and I love what I see
Proud of my ups and my down, that's what made me a G
Now I'm an angel and a demon, nigga, watch how you speak
I mean, put me in, I can't sit in the stands
Still humble, but I'm loud when I be makin' amends
Had to learn to be assertive when it come to them bands
Niggas be tryna find an exit after gettin' them grands
It's big, loyalty shouldn't come with a price
But nowadays, niggas want an extra piece of the pie
But can't bake they own cake, so I ain't givin' up mine

Be Tony Hawk, get on board, nigga, learn how to grind

Woah
