

Paranoid

Morrisson

Black people say I'm too white
White people say I'm too black
But they say I'm too real to do rap
I just stick to the road ting and go and do trap
I ain't nothing like these rappers
I'm a certified trap boy
Ask Stana man in jail, I was a bad boy
Encrypted chats on my Android
If you wanna box, then ring like your man Floyd
Yeah, you're in the trap, but I bet I'm in it deeper
'Bout to take a flight, I need a visa
I flew around the world and back again
Linking new plugs just to get the bricks cheaper
Right now I'm feeling like the Old Bill are onto me
Cause it's been a while since they bothered me
It's been two weeks, three days, and one hour and thirty three seconds
Since they put a pair of cuffs on me
Anyway I swear down the feds are moving bookie
Who's that drivin' that Suzuki?
It's definitely a fed the way he's moving
And now they kept on looking in my car like he knew me
Stop tellin' me that I'm too paranoid
Cause you could never be too paranoid
My paranoia kept me alive and kept me free for this long
So why the fuck would I stop being paranoid?
Huh?

Paranoid, paranoid (Paranoid)
You could never be too paranoid (Never be too paranoid)
Paranoid, paranoid (Paranoid)
You could never be too paranoid
I don't trust my own shadow
Paranoid, paranoid (paranoid)
You could never be too paranoid (never be too paranoid)
Paranoid, paranoid (paranoid)
You could never be too paranoid
I don't trust my own shadow

I'm from the ruins boy
I'm paranoid cuh I'm from Newham boy
Two turn offs before Barking
You gotta circle the block like three or four times before parking
(Look over your shoulder, look over your shoulder)
Good won't be the quota
If you jump out the whip and there's someone's stood over your motor
I think my bredrin's plottin'
I think my girlfriend's cheatin'
I think that boy there snitched
And I think my accountants thievin'
I should really go round there this evening
Paranoia saved my life I done seen it
That's why I never question a gut feeling
As long as drugs sell and this gun's squeezin'
This man better watch his back and front season
Ghetts and Morrisson, Reggie and Streaky
Who's got a problem? Never been easy
Isn't it obvious? Based on how long I've been dominant

Amongst all these wronguns and PC's
Everyone's gassed round here, seems gas is as common as BP (Ooh)
That's why paranoia's a prominent feelin'

I'm paranoid, I can't even trust myself (Trust myself)
I'm paranoid, I can't even trust my girl
She's loyal but I know she's cheatin'
She's got me to the end, but I know she'll leave me
She don't need no one but I know she needs me
She's got her own bread but I know she's greedy
I think I'm too paranoid
I think I'm overthinkin'
Can't sleep, too fuckin' busy overthinkin'
All I do is think, think, think, think, think
'Til I start finding problems that was never in existence
Then I cause a problem that I promise that was never there
Now I'm seeing things that was never there
And I'm hearing things that was never said
I just think I'm too paranoid
