

Lost in a Starless Aeon

Mors Principium Est

I was trapped in a game that I never played
What is my purpose, what is my destiny
A game for fools, there are no rules
I'll cheat this life, you will see soon
That I am not your soul to test
I'll find the edges of this maze
And finally, I'll put to rest
The emptiness that haunts my days
You have made this world below
The shadow of a dream
My shadow is not for sale
(Not for sale)
So this is my last goodbye
(This is goodbye)
My last farewell
Drifting through time
Drifting through time and space
I was drifting through time
Laughter used to fill my days
But now, only sorrow knows my name
I am lost in a starless aeon
This endless path before me
Searching for the end
An empty void surrounds me
Now I descend
I can't escape this darkness
Into the sun
I fly and though I'm lost
This game I won
You have made this world below
The shadow of a dream
My shadow is not for sale
(Not for sale)
So this is my last goodbye
(This is goodbye)
My last farewell
Drifting through time
Drifting through time and space
I was drifting through time
Laughter used to fill my days
But now, only sorrow knows my name
