

Burning Daylight

Morta Skuld

Don't close your eyes
Till you see the pain
Of what tomorrow brings
Still deceived
Why do they run to you?

No one will know
But the sun
What you fear
Inside your heart

I've searched throughout my soul
And not found what I seek
No forgiveness, no sadness
For these words that you breathe

Wasting away
Productive energy
Day by day
They fool each other
As they hide the truth
From themselves

As you shield your eyes
From what you see
Wait in fear
For your time will come

I've searched throughout my soul
And not found what I seek
No forgiveness, no sadness
For these words that you breathe

Lost in their betrayal
Deceived you keep them alive
Till the end
