

Save Yourself

Morta Skuld

we suffer in the system of technology freedom is the cage we all call home scales of justice, corruption, forced to your knees by dreams built on false hope you leaft us nothing but a world beyond repair try and heal yourself, try and save yourself try and see yourself, save yourself
save yourself
you turn your back on your beliefs sees of the future now planted now we know we were leaft for dead we suffer in the system of fuckin' greed freedom is the cage we call home how can you turn your back on me you selfish motherfucker have you been brainwashed or don't you care save the earth, kill yourself
try and heal yourself, try and see yourself try and save yourself, save yourself.
