

(Isn't it quiet all of a sudden?)

Come closer and let me see your eyes
Pure evil
(Lidless and modified)
So tell me
Do you remember the night
When we last met under sodium light?
The love, the center of my happiness
She had wandered into this neck of the wilderness
And by the time I raised the night patrol
You had quenched your thirst and ravaged her soul
Now I've returned here to settle the score
My name is San of the Fre Merzasphor

We wrestle free
Wrestle free
From the black embrace of hopelessness
We wrestle free
We wrestle dark angels of fear
Winged malevolence

(It's such a pity you have so much at stake
Your life to me is just a life to take
You're such a fool to think revenge is no crime
When your intentions are as evil as mine)
Come on!

And let your hatred fly
Let your anger scream
For today you die
I'm pleased that you've been so amused
But what you don't know is
I've got nothing to lose
First blow!
Is for the blood you've shed as deep as the sea
Last blow!
Is for the happiness you've stolen from me
Now as you fade into nothing hear the words once more
My name is San and I am Fre Merzasphor

We wrestle free
Wrestle free
From the coils of poisoned innocence
We wrestle free
We wrestle bright agents of darkest death

Blood washes easily
Forgiveness is beyond me
But the hardest lesson to learn is how to forget

We wrestle free
Wrestle free
From the grip of forces unseen
We wrestle free
We wrestle against the pull of deep currents within
We wrestle free

Wrestle free from the black embrace of hopelessness
We wrestle free
We wrestle dark angels of fear
Winged malevolence
