

Liquid Gift

Mortal

your wounds
your eyes
your strength
your lies

i want more
want it all
everything
everything

reveal yourself to me!

show your face
show your veins
scratch your scales
lift your wings

spill your blood
bare your soul
sacrifice
this is gold

reveal yourself!
until your self is revealed and if i never touch your scars i'll know who you are only if you tell me

and what if i will never know how you're hurting so only you can say

life is loss
death is gain
if love is truth
say your name

everything

reveal yourself to me!
until your soul is revealed

i see your self in me!
