Oceanful

Mortal

have you waited long
for me to come around?
did you know that i was lost hoping you would be the one to find me?

all the wasted while away from you my love
will fall in perfect time like tears - back into my life soon!

i'm turning down
my giving up
on principles

i'm throwing out
my bitter cup
in oceanfuls

five days together
is not enough for me
when it's forever
we'll have to wait and see

i'm throwing down
serious amounts of emptiness how good that sounds!!
