

Devastation Bound

Mortemia

Days are waning
Lights are fading
Hopes are breaking with time
The waining ways of the mind
The ever merciless wheel of time
The destined path to our decline
Lies paved before our eyes

Stare into the night
Into enigmas undefined
The hidden viper, the veiled cipher
Flames rage higher
Burning brighter
Reveal yourself to me
Unveil your deepest mysteries
The keys to unlock doors confined
To gate ways of our arcane afterlife

Godforsaken we're undertaken
This groundbreaking decline
For all the pain we've undergone
We're all broken, all woebegone
We fall apart, all as one
Beneth the dying sun

Stare into the night
Into enigmas undefined
The hidden viper, the veiled cipher
Flames rage higher
Burning brighter
Reveal yourself to me
Unveil your deepest mysteries
The keys to unlock doors confined
To gate ways of our arcane afterlife

Days are waning
The lights are fading
All hopes are breaking
We're devastation bound

Stare into the night
Into enigmas undefined
The hidden viper, the veiled cipher
Flames rage higher
Burning brighter
Reveal yourself to me
Unveil your deepest mysteries
The keys to unlock doors confined
To gate ways of our arcane afterlife
