

Forever And Beyond

Mortemia

It's just another discourtesy
It's just another absurdity
It's just another disaster
Yet another
It's just another day thrown away
It's just another year gone to waste
It's just another disaster
Yet another

Timeless riddles linger on
Forever and beyond
Imprisoned by mind
Broken, lost and blind
For all hope now turned to dust
For your destiny star-crossed
For each dream once left behind
Are but scars within your mind

It's just another insanity
It's just another profanity
It's just another disaster
Yet another
It's just another iniquity
It's just another malignity
It's just another disaster
Yet another (Yet another, yet another)

Timeless riddles linger on
Forever and beyond
Imprisoned by mind
Broken, lost and blind
For all hope now turned to dust
For your destiny star-crossed
For each dream once left behind
Are but scars within your mind

Into the abyss of time
Diving deeper into your mind
Behold the graveyard of dreams
That once were broken and buried in the deep

Timeless riddles linger on
Forever and beyond
Imprisoned by mind
Broken, lost and blind
For all hope now turned to dust
For your destiny star-crossed
For each dream once left behind
Are but scars within your mind
