

Here Comes Winter

Mortemia

Here comes the rain
Here comes the everlasting pain
Here comes the sorrow
The burden and the flames

Here comes the winter
Here comes the everlasting cold
Here comes the darkness
The sickness and the fall

Dreams waning caving in all falling to pieces
Screams at me so silently eternally
Embraced by winter for one last time (last time)

There's no tomorrow
There's no redemption for the sane
We all follow the path towards the grave
There's no relief
Nothing but pain and disbelief
No more dreams
Nothing but silent screams

Dreams waning caving in all falling to pieces
Screams at me so silently eternally
Embraced by winter for one last time (last time)

Dreams waning caving in all falling to pieces
Screams at me so silently eternally
Embraced by winter for one last time (last time)
