

The Enigmatic Sequel

Mortemia

I'm standing at the end of life
Looking back at pain and strife
One thousand fingers, one thousand claws
Tears at my heart and my soul

All of your memories fade to black
None of your loved ones ever coming back
All of your tear drops buried deep in the sea
All of your life force lost eternally

I stare into the green part of me
Long gone are days of hope and of bliss
I fall onto my very knees
Very much here to deny your pain

All of your memories fade to black
None of your loved ones ever coming back
All of your tear drops buried deep in the sea
All of your life force lost eternally
