

Back To You

Mosaic MSC

Your love, it keeps pulling us up
Pulling us back to where You are
And it's Your love, Your peace
Your joy that fills our hearts

And when You move, like rain
You fall right through us like a flood
Your voice, it speaks, the sound
Like fire to our bones, oh

Lead us back to You, oh oh
Lead us back to You
Lead us back to You, oh oh
Lead us back to You

Your grace invades our lives
It binds us to Your heart
Your power, it fuels our souls
With strength to carry on

Lead us back to You, oh oh
Lead us back to You
Lead us back to You, oh oh
Lead us back to You

We will rise up, running through the fire
In the dark when our eyes can't see
We will rise up, singing like a choir
Lead us back to You
We will rise up, running through the fire
In the dark when our eyes can't see
We will rise up, singing like a choir
Lead us back to You

Back to You
Back to You
Back to You

We will rise up, running through the fire
In the dark when our eyes can't see
We will rise up, singing like a choir
Lead us back to You
We will rise up, running through the fire
In the dark when our eyes can't see
We will rise up, singing like a choir
Lead us back to You
