

Steady

Mosaic MSC

You are constant in the way that You forgive me
Steady as the moon that shifts the tide
Consistent in the way that You believe in me
True in how You choose me every time

Till the end
I will stand with You
To the end
Devoted to You
To the end
I will sing to You
To the end

You are constant in the way that You amaze me
Steady as the moon that brings the night
Consistent in the way that You're redeeming me
True in how my past won't change Your mind

Till the end
I will stand with You
To the end
Devoted to You
To the end
I will sing to You
To the end

To the end
You can count on me
To the end
Faithfully
To the end
I will sing to You
To the end

Till all time runs out
And my breath wears thin
You will hear my voice
My imperfect melody
When my bones are dust
And my hands can't raise
You will hear my voice
And my love will last

Till all time runs out
And my breath wears thin
You will hear my voice
My imperfect melody
When my bones are dust
And my hands can't raise
You will hear my voice
And my love will last

Till all time runs out
You will hear my voice
My imperfect melody

And my hands can't raise
You will hear my voice
And my love will last

Till the end
I will stand with You
To the end
Devoted to You
To the end
I will sing to You
To the end

To the end
You can count on me
To the end
Faithfully
To the end
I will sing to You
To the end
To the end

Till the end
I will stand with You
To the end
Devoted to You
To the end
I will sing to You
To the end

To the end
You can count on me
To the end
Faithfully
To the end
I will sing to You
To the end
