Mosaic MSC

My forever in Your heart
Your steps I will follow
I put my trust in who You are
Your voice is my arrow

And I will walk into the dark
To see how the light breaks through
I will run into Your arms
I will hold on to You

I will lift my eyes to things unseen
To the promise in Your victory
And I will build my life on the mystery
Of where You call me, and I will go
Into the unknown

I can't be shaken with Your words
Hidden in my heart
I can't contain what I have seen
Light rising from the dark

I will lift my eyes to things unseen
To the promise in Your victory
And I will build my life on the mystery
Of where You call me, and I will go
Into the unknown

Greater than I could ever dream
Further than I could ever see
Who can compare to the greatest wonder
Higher than I could ever reach
Stronger than I could ever be
Nothing compares to how You love me
Greater than I could ever dream
Further than I could ever see
Who can compare to the greatest wonder
Higher than I could ever reach
Stronger than I could ever be
Nothing compares to how You love me
Greater than I could ever dream
Further than I could ever see
Who can compare to the greatest wonder
Higher than I could ever reach
Stronger than I could ever be
Nothing compares to how You love

I will lift my eyes to things unseen
To the promise in Your victory
And I will build my life on the mystery
Of where You call me, and I will go
I will lift my eyes to things unseen
To the promise in Your victory
And I will build my life on the mystery
Of where You call me, and I will go
Into the unknown

And I will build my life on the mystery

Of where You call me, and I will go
Into the unknown
