

Fence

Moses Sumney

Only meant to give you my all
Never meant to build you a wall
Only meant to give you my all
Never meant to build you a wall

In the morning light you look disappointed like
You finally see me
While you were sleeping I built a fortress
Round the porch outside
As long as you stay wrapped inside
Don't have to be me

The sky still borderless
You could still access, you're free
If you just look up at it
How you once looked at me

Only meant to give you my all
Never meant to build you a wall
Only meant to give you my all
Never meant to build you a wall

My body bent around ya
I built a fence around ya
As my defense surrounds ya
It's the expense that drowns you

Only meant to give you my all
Never meant to build you a wall
Only meant to give you my all
Never meant to build you a wall
A wall
A fence of stone
