

Righteous

MoStack

Yo, I miss you, I miss you
You don't miss me, Mo
If you missed me you would've called me, at least check up on me
(Just don't understand, innit?)
Um, but I'm at home, how are you? How's lockdown going?
Shit, I don't know, everything's righteous right now, cuz (Everything righteous)
Things are going on

You see I fuck with both sides
I don't care who's opps with who (I don't care)
Anyone can get it with a mop broom (Boom, boom)
And she was rating the drip, the costume
She said I got fly kicks like Kung-Fu
Had two gyal eating pussy on my damn bed
Doing 69 like Daniel Hernandez
They were on some freaky shit, she gave me mad head
One licked the butthole, but don't tell the mandem
(You're nasty, blud!)
That was very rotten
I bust on her chest and it dripped to her belly button
So much gyal that I tek, I can never trust 'em
Raised with love and respect, but still fuck 'em
On my birthday I did somethin' devilish
Before I blew my candles, I made me a death wish
Back ah day, I had my hand on his neckless
Runnin' 'round like I took enough [?]

You see the money, righteous
The car, righteous
The gyal, righteous
They ain't nothin' like us
That's why they no like us (Everything righteous)
That's why they no like us (Everything righteous)
You see the money, righteous
The car, righteous
The gyal, righteous
They ain't nothin' like us
That's why they no like us (Everything righteous)
That's why they no like us (Everything righteous)

I said, "Babe we ain't workin' out"
She said (Cool, let's go gym more)
Nah, boo, you know what I meant
But she's stuck like cement
The opps dem hate me, they wanna see me dead
They tried to shoot a shot, but they're bent (Missed!)
So much sins but I'm yet to repent
It sounds weird, but I let my God down like a jem
They talk about me when they gossip and they vent
But I couldn't hear them, I was hidin' in the vent
I'm back in my prime, in my element
I keep tellin' them, "If it doesn't benefit my life, it's irrelevant"
Let's suggest the issue and don't move hesitant
I know you see it in the room, don't ignore the elephant
Ay, being broke's contagious, I can't have them niggas as my neighbours
That shit's outrageous

Her bum, outrageous
Lifestyle righteous
Light up the lighters

You see the money, righteous
The car, righteous
The gyal, righteous
They ain't nothin' like us
That's why they no like us (Everything righteous)
That's why they no like us (Everything righteous)
You see the money, righteous
The car, righteous
The gyal, righteous
They ain't nothin' like us
That's why they no like us (Everything righteous)
