

buzzkill

MOTHICA

I'm a buzzkill, I'm a broken one
I'm a victim of the things you've done
I'm a phantom of who I thought I was Ever since you, ever since you

I don't talk about it
Unless I make a joke about it
That's just what you want, huh?
That's just what you want
Walkin' on the ceiling
Gettin' used to never feeling
You still havin' fun, huh?
And I don't trust no one

I won't keep your secrets now
You can't keep my volume down

I'm a buzzkill
Time to kill your high 'cause I'm pissed off
I think you'd know why, and you're scared now
'Cause receipts don't lie
Ever since you, ever since you fucked up
Haven't made a sound, got me upset
Now I'm gettin' loud, better watch me
Burn this whole place down
Ever since you, ever since you

Know what you did
Don't let it happen again, I pray for the kid
That calls you a friend
You pulled them right in, told them their sins
Holy motherfucker, do you have something to say?
'Cause this is the beginning of the price you're gonna pay

I won't keep your secrets now
You can't keep my volume down

I'm a buzzkill
Time to kill your high 'cause I'm pissed off
I think you'd know why, and you're scared now
'Cause receipts don't lie
Ever since you, ever since you fucked up
Haven't made a sound, got me upset
Now I'm gettin' loud, better watch me
Burn this whole place down
Ever since you, ever since you

Ever since you, ever since you
