

LULLABY

MOTHICA

I'm here, awake again like sleep's the enemy
'Cause when I close my eyes, I lose my mind in some twisted fantasy
'Cause I don't know how to relax, I'm all tied up on the tracks
And I feel the pavement shaking, breaking under me

So I keep singing to myself
'Cause it's the only thing that helps
A lullaby nobody knows

And it goes:
La, la-la-la, la
La, la, la, la, la
La, la-la-la, la-la-la
And it goes:
La, la-la-la, la
La, la, la, la, la
La, la-la-la, la-la-la

I can't speak, my hands are tied in sleep paralysis
A hooded man appears, says I'm the catalyst
But I'm no coward, I don't run from smoke and mirrors
Yeah, my head's a haunted house, no reason to be scared

If I keep singing to myself
Like it's the only thing that helps
A lullaby nobody knows

And it goes:
La, la-la-la, la
La, la, la, la, la
La, la-la-la, la-la-la
And it goes:
La, la-la-la, la
La, la, la, la, la
La, la-la-la, la-la-la

Sometimes, all you need is a little lullaby
To lull you into a deep slumber when you have trouble sleeping
And the ruckus of the day is reverberating through your brain
Let this melody crawl into your ear and make itself at home

And it goes:
La, la-la-la, la
La, la, la, la, la
La, la-la-la, la-la-la
La, la-la-la, la
La, la, la, la, la
La, la-la-la, la-la-la
