

Think I'm gonna sabotage with no warning
Crash and burn, say something I'll regret
Know I shouldn't fall back into old patterns
Compare myself to every girl you've ever met

And I can't blame you for someone else's mistakes, I
And I don't want to push you away but I still

Relive every moment
Hoping you don't notice
You just tripped a red light in my mind
You tell me to trust you
Swear to God I try to
I still got some scars from the last time

I-I-I-I, I-I-I-I
Relive every moment in my mind
I-I-I-I, I-I-I-I
I still got some scars from the last time

I let you in
Goddamn, it's fucking scary
You let your guard down
Like it's nothing
I'm used to dysfunction
Get drunk and fight about it
You wanna just talk it out

And I can't blame you for someone else's mistakes, I
And I don't want to push you away but I still

Relive every moment
Hoping you don't notice
You just tripped a red light in my mind
You tell me to trust you
Swear to God I try to
I still got some scars from the last time

I-I-I-I, I-I-I-I
Relive every moment in my mind
I-I-I-I, I-I-I-I
I still got some scars from the last time
