

Cutting ties with the angel on my shoulder
On my good side, feel like crossing over
I know I shouldn't but I might
I wanna know what it feels like

In my mind, see your hands run down my body
Like the impulse won't come back to haunt me
I wanted to but I didn't
Make one more bad decision

I'm hearing sirens blaring in my head
Don't need to look down, know I'm on the edge

I'm hearing sirens blaring in my head
Don't need to look down, know I'm on the edge
I like the fatal feeling that I get
I'm high off vertigo

When you're close
When you're close
Vertigo
When you're close
(I see, I see)

I see strawberry colored, cherry flavored flags waving in my eyes
Think I died, I hear cruisers rolling by
While I'm standing on the cliff and it's a long way down
Push me off, I love the rush, open arms, I hit the ground like

Ooh, I love it
Speeding through the minefield
Ooh, I love it
My Death Note is signed, sealed

I'm hearing sirens blaring in my head
Don't need to look down, know I'm on the edge
I like the fatal feeling that I get
I'm high off vertigo

When you're close
When you're close
Vertigo
When you're close

Close
Pull me close
When you're close
Vertigo
Vertigo, oh, oh

I'm hearing sirens blaring in my head
Don't need to look down, know I'm on the edge
I like the fatal feeling that I get
I'm high off vertigo

When you're close
Vertigo
