

TEARS

MOTHICA

I've tried everything
Red wine and suffering
Anything to feel less alone
I'm sick of being mad
People who treat me bad
Everything just feels so cold

Someday
I'll be looking down from a big stage
Forget all about the heartbreak
Look what I've made with my tears
Look what I've made with my tears

(Tears, tears, tears)
(Tears, tears, tears, tears)

When they see how far I've come
I'll sit back and laugh at all
The things they said
All the tears I've shed, oh

Ooh, someday you'll see my name up in lights
Ooh, I'll wait for you to say I was right
Ooh, only took a couple of years
And ahhh, but look what I've made with my tears

(Tears, tears, tears)
(Tears, tears, tears, tears)

Someday
I'll be looking down from a big stage
Forget all about the heartbreak
Look what I've made with my tears
(Tears, tears, tears, tears)

Look what I've made with my tears
