

Hollow Points

Motionless in White

Yeah

Put a bullet in my head, blow it out with your hollow points
Nothing that you say is any help, it's just f*cking noise
Get down upon your knees, thank the lord for your blessed life
Looking down your nose, feeling saved, a pretentious vice
Ego toxicity, brand your faith a currency
But when it doesn't serve your purpose, you just bite your tongue
You'll never see for the evil that it has become
You'll never see it for the evil

Manipulate, preach and lie (Fire hollow points)
They puncture between my eyes (Kill the f*cking noise)

Nail your hands against your heart, say a prayer for the wicked souls
Armageddon's here, crack a smile 'cause we dug our holes
Fevered duplicity
Manifest complicity

Manipulate, preach and lie (Fire hollow points)
They puncture between my eyes (Kill the f*cking noise)
This pride's not a virtue, we all die the same

A fiction woven through time
That faith means divine

You'll never see it for the evil that it's now become
And when it strikes you just bite your tongue

Surrender the splendor
The true god screams offender
So biased, your highness
Superior yet blind to bliss

Manipulate, preach and lie (Fire hollow points)
They puncture between my eyes (Kill the f*cking noise)
This pride's not a virtue, we all die the same
A fiction you live in
That your faith means divine

The ignorance fuels the irony in (You'll be sanctified)
The way you exist, a wolf in sheep's skin (You'll be sanctified)
Holier than thou yet soaked in your sin (You'll be sanctified)
Of misrepresenting all you claim to hold dear

You'll never see it for the evil that it's now become
And by the knife, when it strikes, I'll cut out your tongue
