

So Good, So Bad

Mötley Crüe

Johnny's high, he slowly walks down the mainline
He said he really had the blues of his soul
Said it was like poison deep down in his heart

I was screamin' from the dream in pain
Blind lead the blind like a terrible fate
Ridin' high through the graveyard of the night

Somewhere in moonlight, needles in his arm
Only you could taste so, only you could make me feel
So good, so bad, so bad, breaks my heart
So good, so bad, so bad, breaks my heart

This junky dude he got his bitch in trouble
She said 'I wonder if I can help her out?'
I said 'Yeah' and I had to get her out of town

You're in my mainline, a gypsy in my eyes
Only you could taste so, only you could make me feel
So good, so bad, so bad, breaks my heart
So good, so bad, so bad, breaks my heart

It's easy come, easy go, the hard life
It cuts your throat while the jackyl stalks the night
Roll the dice are you too fast for love?

You're in my mainline, a gypsy in my eyes
Only you could taste so, only you could make me feel
So good, so bad, so bad, breaks my heart
So good, so bad, so bad, breaks my heart
So good, so bad, so bad, breaks my heart
So good, so bad, so bad, breaks my heart
