

Toast Of The Town

Mötley Crüe

Hey, hey, hey
Hey kid, the whole house is shaking
We got the time, right in our sights

Hey, hey, hey
Hey kid, the worlds gone crazy
But you know it won't last too long
You know it won't last too long
You know it won't last too long
You know it won't last too long

Hey kid, you're the toast of the town
Well hey kid, you're the toast of the town

Hey, hey, hey
Hey kid, what's it going to get you
Screaming through the hours of the night

Hey, hey, hey
Hey kid, the worlds gone crazy
But you know it won't last too long
You know it won't last too long
You know it won't last too long
You know it won't last too long

Hey kid, you're the toast of the town
Well hey kid, you're the toast of the town

You heard me saying, baby don't be a fool
I got news for you
Well, pack your things baby, don't be a fool
Before it crashes down on you

Down on you
Down on you
Down on you

Come on

Well hey kid, you're the toast of the town
Well hey kid, you're the toast of the town
Well hey kid, you're the toast of the town
Well hey kid, you're the toast of the town
Well hey kid
