

Climber

Motörhead

Hard time getting to ya babe
Double take, figure real rough trade
But you know I'm a real good lover
Can't judge a book by its cover
I know and you know I know
Can't trust your intuition no more

Look good and I make you smile
Bet you thought I wouldn't have no style
I'm gonna turn your head around
Won't know 'til you hit the ground
Gonna change the way you feel
I'm gonna roll you like a wheel

High life, I'm a fool for you
Low life, I like to break the rules
First bite, you know I got a taste for you
I'm gonna make you shine

Be a switch to say the least
My beauty gonna meet your beast
Comin' over and shake your tree
My body's gonna set you free
I know and you know it's true
Move over I'm coming through

It's all over and I got you down
Gonna chase you round and round
Mess around with the way I feel
Gonna offer you a whole new deal
Gonna lay it on ya just for kicks
Down on ya like a ton of bricks
