

Don't Let Daddy Kiss Me

Motörhead

Little girl sleeping in dreams of peace,
Mommy's been gone a long time,

Emi

Daddy comes home and she still sleeps,

Emi

Waiting for the world's worst crime.

Ami

And he comes up the stairs like he always does,

Emi

And he never turns on the light,

Ami

And she's wide awake, scared to death,

C

She smells his lust and she smells his sweat

Ami

Curled in a ball she holds her breath

G

Praying to a God that she's never met

Emi D Ami

R: Don't let daddy kiss me,

Emi D C

Don't let daddy kiss me

Emi

Good night

Emi

Little girl lies by her daddy's side

Emi

And she listens to him breathe

Emi

She knows there's something awful wrong

Emi

That she's far too young to see

Emi Ami

And she knows she can't tell anyone

Emi

She's so full of guilt and shame,

Ami

And if she tells she'll be all alone

They'd steal her daddy and they'd steal her home

Ami

And it's not so bad when daddy leaves her alone

Praying to her God with his heart of stone

R:

Emi

And daddy lies by his daughter's side,

Emi

And he sleeps both deep and well

Emi

No nightmares come to him tonight,

Emi

Though his daughter lives in hell

Ami

For his seed is sown where it should not be

Emi

And the beast in his mind don't care

Ami

And the only sounds are the tears that fall

Little girl turns her face to the wall

Ami

She knows that no one hears her call,

C

But it seems like God hears nothing at all

Emi

D

Ami

Don't let daddy kiss me,

Emi

Ami

Don't let daddy kiss me,

Emi

Don't let daddy kiss me

Good night

Oh dear
