Motograter

All your life you've taken advantage
All your life you've been running
Away All this time you've left me stranded
I kept giving day after day
You have nothing to offer anyone
You have nothing not one little bit
You live your life taking from others Always talking talking your shit

And there's no escape
From you and your ways All you do is take
And never relate
Now fall on your face
And your to blame
When will you realize
That you can no longer hide
It's plainly easy for me to see
You lack sympathy

And I've given you everything
I'm lost inside my mind
Walking an empty plain
Searching

You have no morals no honor to live
By You have no morals this much is true
A leech feeding on the blood of humanity
Using us all until your through
Now that you've pulled all of your stunts
Now that you've pulled the wool over our eyes
We can see what your doing
We can see see through your lies

And there's no escape
From you and your ways
All you do is take
And never relate
Now fall on your face
And your to blame
Your faceless, you have no face, DISGRACE
And I've given you everything
I'm lost inside my mind
Walking an empty plain
Searching for my eyes
And I've given you everything Surrounded by your lies

Faceless
You have no face
Faceless
Your a disgrace
Faceless
You have no face
