Come On In

Motorpsycho

How come you're never there when I'm on the floor to pick me up or to kick my ass or what? I don't think you care cos when you walk out the door you always seem to leave the deepest cut

Come on in

don't you think I know the answer?

let me show you how the story goes come on into this void I call my castle live it up

I won't be stepping on your toes

Going home-time breedes misunderstanding I always seem to misunderstand the most walk the tightrope and you won't break your neck fallin' but it's my death warrant that you've nailed upon the post

you always seem to leave the deepest cut.....
