Greener

Motorpsycho

She wore her hair like a rock'n'roll star with that «wounded bird»-look in her eyes just another femme fatale on the prowl the perfect jaded grin vacant eyes with the promise of sin I remember thinking «she'll go farshe'll be a star»

I looked that way but turned around been down that road before the hook is baited and the trap is set waiting for someone greener greener...

all of 26
omnipotent with nervous ticks the etheral cynic with too much to defend I don't want to play that game however different,it's always the same how could it mean anything if I force it ,tear it,numb with greed?

I looked that way but turned around
been down that road before so I'll head for the ditch instead and bide my time waiting for someone Greener-and stop wasting time with what could have been Greener-and just keep searchin' for the places I've never seen Greener-if I could have my shot anew,Iwould paint it Greener-and not so hollow ,dull and blue.
Greener....
