

My Canopy

Mount Eerie

Some affection is mercurial
I've gone in and out of favor with no footing

But my love for you, my child, is as permanent as sky
Breathe forever beneath the canopy of my life
While you wait through winters, coals illuminate your night
Salmonberries will return, and you are always in my eye

I love you