No Inside, No Out

Mount Eerie

Because the pupil of my eye is a hole, There is no inside and there is no out The world is in me And i am in the world

Because my teeth are the visible bones In my mouth of invisible songs A cave in the night is overflowing There's no inside and no suffocation Being "in the world" is having scattered ashes A cave at night is overflowing in song