

To The Ground

Mount Eerie

It was all a dream

I came out from beneath the earth blanket
In the form of a person awoken
Blown through a life in confusion
Back and forth in the whirlwind
And the wind has a song

33 years of watching a mountain
In between thirty three waves of weather
And the stone is watching me back
I returnAt last
To the ground

"Ohhh It was only a dream
I came out from beneath
In the form of a person
Blown back and forth in the whirlwind
Blown back and forth in the whirlwind
Blown back and forth in the whirlwind"

I return, at last, to the ground

I came out from beneath the earth blanket
In the form of a person awoken
Blown through a life in confusion ("Ohhh It was only a dream")
Back and forth in the whirlwind ("I came out from beneath")
And the wind has a song ("In the form of a person")

33 years of watching a mountain ("Blown back and forth in the w hirlwind")
In between thirty-three waves of weather ("Blown back and forth in the whirlwind")
And the stone is watching me back ("Blown back and forth in the whirlwind")
I return, at last, to the ground...
