

Elemental

Mournful Congregation

Black clouds collide until the storm is ready to burst waves rise from the sea and the swells stretch up to the sky hills tremble in agony as the earth is to yawn the mist turns to smoke when the flames lick the materia

"the powers of the sea sea, the earth, the winds and the fire, can you hear my chant?"

fall asleep, fall into darkness elemental powers break the chain fall eternal through the pits of time spiritual desecration

"that is not dead which can eternal lie and with strange aeons even death may die." (abdul alhazred)

"invisible hands grope at my throat those eyes staring at me... what a misery..."

a dimensional shambler took him beyond the bounds (of dimensions)
