

Closer to Closure

Mourning September

Turn, turn tell me
are you feeling closer to closure
Turn, turn around
be honest with me
Is it over?
Burn baby burn
The bridges burn tonight.
I can see the fire in your eyes.
Time is running out.
You better turn, you better
turn and walk away.
You're one step closer,
and I can see him fading from your eyes.
It's only a matter of time
Burn baby burn
The bridges burn tonight.
I can see the fire in your eyes.
Time is running out.
You better turn, you better
turn and walk away.
