

Brother On the Run

Mousse T.

Alright, alright
Alright, alright

Brother on the run
How did you become a brother on the run?
One bullet from a gun
That's how it started for this brother on the run
Looking to see, who's behind you
And hoping like hell, they don't find you
Trying to hide, in a place that you can
Just how long, can you run from a man?

Brother on the run
You should have known, this kind of life would be no fun
It was the evil that you'd done
That's why they call you, a brother on the run
What shouldn't you do, and what shouldn't ya say?
You know it shouldn't have happened this way
Where can you go, and where can you hide
When there's no one, no one by your side?

Brother on the run
Said, brother on the run
I'm a brother on the run
I'm a brother on the run
I said, I'm a brother on the run
Oh, brother on the run
Hey

Whoa

Here we go, y'all
Part two, y'all
Alright, alright
Alright, alright, alright, alright

I'm brother on the run
How did you become a brother on the run?
One bullet from a gun
That's how it started for this brother on the run
Looking to see, who's behind you
One hoping like hell, they don't find you
Trying to hide, in a place that you can
Tell me how long, how long can you dart a man?

Brother on the run
You should have known, this kind of life would be no fun
It was the evil that you'd done
Oh, for this brother on the run
Check it out, oh
What shouldn't you do and what shouldn't ya say?
You know this shouldn't, shouldn't happen this way
Oh, where can you go, and where can you hide
When there's no one, no one by your side?

I'm brother on the run
Yeah, brother on the run

I said, I'm a brother on the run
Oh, oh, brother on the run
Gotta get on run and hide
Ah, I gotta get on run and hide
Ah!
