Movements

When the air gets cold and the night shifts
I know you're dreaming of the world next door
And it hits like the flip of a light switch
'Cause in the dark you can be so much more

Oh, you got that idol step
All the lights turn red
So determined just to earn a little brush with death
You got that holy shape
Feed your fix just to pay it
Again and again and again

You wear attention like it's perfume
And you're the highest in the whole room
So tell me why you're leaving so soon
Nobody knows you but they want to
You know they want to

Give 'em all your best moves
Knock 'em dead and make them broke too
Old addiction's got a new groove
You're getting high because you want to
I know you want to

Got me on my knees, you're my obsession
I don't even know you by your name
Let me spill my secrets like confession
Body like an angel, let me pray

Oh, you give me heart attacks
But I like it like that
You took a piece of me away and I don't want it back
You've got me tempting fate
Name your price and I'll pay it again and again

You wear attention like it's perfume
And you're the highest in the whole room
So tell me why you're leaving so soon
Nobody knows you but they want to
You know they want to

Give 'em all your best moves
Knock 'em dead and make them broke too
Old addiction's got a new groove
You're getting high because you want to
I know you want to

You wear attention like it's perfume
And you're the highest in the whole room
So tell me why you're leaving so soon
Nobody knows you but they want to
You know they want to

Give 'em all your best moves
Knock 'em dead and make them broke too
Old addiction's got a new groove
You're getting high because you want to

I know you want to
