

Cherry Thrill

Movements

Burn down the house, head for the hills
Phone call you up, let's make a deal
Don't tell a soul, I never will
I'm hypnotized in your cherry thrill

Lips like lightning, skin so sweet
Touch like fire but you're so discreet
Fill my head with diamond rings
Everyone else is dead to me

Ooh, am I the only one?
I think it might be fun
Drop everything and run
Ooh, you look so fit to kill
World explodes and I'm with you still
Hypnotized in your cherry thrill

I'm feeling lucky, I'm feeling charmed
You pick the roles, I'll play the part
One robs the bank, one drives the car
And we run the job like a work of art

I'm feeding off your energy
The way you move so expertly
You fill my head with diamond rings
Everyone else is dead to me

Ooh, am I the only one?
I think it might be fun
Drop everything and run
Ooh, you look so fit to kill
World explodes and I'm with you still
Hypnotized in your cherry thrill

It's just you and me, our identities, and a loaded gun
Living carelessly, no apologies when we're on the run
When they break the streak, gonna make a scene
We're going down for the count over my dead body

Ooh, am I the only one?
I think it might be fun
Drop everything and run
Ooh, you look so fit to kill
World explodes and I'm with you still
Hypnotized in your cherry thrill
Ooh, am I the only one?
Ooh, I think it might be fun
Ooh, never seen you so fit to kill
World explodes and I'm with you still
Hypnotized in your cherry...
