

Grow On, Grow Up, Grow Out

Moving Mountains

Oh god,
What the fuck is going on with me and everyone?
It's you and me
Someday we'll see the end
Because you're in the sky and I'm in the earth
But this time it's different
I swear to god, the sun's exploding within my arms
And it's getting warmer and I can see that the sun is truly in love with me
Because you and I were blown away by love and hope for better d ays
You and I were blown away
