Hello Sunshine

Mozella

Hello, sunshine, hello, good times,
Goodbye, heartache, love is here again.
Hello, sunshine, now you're all mine,
Shining on me and let our world begin.

Before today our life was upside down
And full with disobey.
Now I feel emotions that I can't explain,
I am not the same, you turn out a light in me
And love is here to stay.

Hello, sunshine, hello, good times,
Goodbye, heartache, love is here again.
Hello, sunshine, now you're all mine,
Shining on me and let our world begin.

Before today my heart could not be found,
And you were on your way.
Now I'm seeing something that I can't explain,
Nothing feels the same,
You brought back the life in me
And love is here to stay.

Hello, sunshine, hello, good times,
Goodbye, heartache, love is here again.
Hello, sunshine, now you're all mine,
Shining on me and let our world begin.

Each time I see your face I fall in love again
Each time I see your face I fall in love again, yeah…

Hello, sunshine, hello, good times,
Goodbye, heartache, love is here again.
Hello, sunshine, now you're all mine,
Shining on me and let our world begin.
Hello, sunshine, hello, good times,
Goodbye, heartache, love is here, love is here again.
Hello, sunshine, hello, sunshine,
Love is here, love is here again.
Hello, sunshine, hello, sunshine,
Love is here, love is here again.
