

I never feared another man, that nigga bleed the same
I bought some balls and told the dealer he can keep the change
Lost my youngin' as a youth and couldn't sleep the same
I hit my dawg inside his mouth and he don't speak the same
I keep it flame, he bowed his head when he seen the flames
I heard he hate, hate throwin' dirt when niggas speak my name
I bleed the game, bread and butter hit me, said he needed change
Detectives came to holler about a homi', I ain't leak a thing
I love the hood, where that nigga say he from? Fuck his hood
Had to pass on all them hoes, blood stained, stuffin' wood
I wish you would, I'ma do you sloppy just for reachin'
I'm confident and my demons be droppin' 'em all season
I don't need a reason I just wake up and hustle
Wise family turned to leeches, till this day it's a struggle
It took me closer to my dream with every play that I fumbled
It's shots fired, body fell, fell asleep in the puddle

It get hazardous, blaming your positions on the passenger ambassador
I could place a call and cause a massacre
Trafficker, purple lavender on my new traveler, new bag alert
And I bought it, carry it in different calibers
It's hazardous, blaming your positions on the passenger ambassador
I could place a call and cause a massacre
Trafficker, purple lavender on my new traveler, new bag alert
And I bought it, carry it in different calibers

Make sure that my mama Gucci, make sure that my sister straight
Make sure that my brother platinum strip off at any day
Body hit the canvas, niggas panic while I resuscitate
He ain't think the Lord tweak his words, lackin' education
Modify the semi to a fully, it ain't registrated
Lil' brother dangerous on the court and I just pray he make it
Do this for my Zeta, baby, doers know that daddy up
Everytime I touch down in your biddy, I be blasted up
Theodore, bring him to the law, she get her Addy up
Bouncin' out the guinea lookin' like tell 'em add me up
I'm actin up, yeah, them niggas is mad as fuck
Gotta put they dawg in the dirt, the homie, bag him up
Sup with all these interviews though, you niggas just actin' tough
Whackin' out the hood on the wall but niggas ain't whackin' nothing
Yeah, them niggas ain't whackin' nothing
Whackin' out the hood on the wall but niggas ain't whackin' nothing

It get hazardous, blaming your positions on the passenger ambassador
I could place a call and cause a massacre
Trafficker, purple lavender on my new traveler, new bag alert
And I bought it, carry it in different calibers
It's hazardous, blaming your positions on the passenger ambassador
