Let You Know

Mozzy

Yeah, aye
Aye, don't we all love beautiful things?
We love when the sun shine
But don't we hate when it rain?
What's joy without pain?
Even though I still complain
I can't be sittin' on my ass
But out beggin' for change
See, I can't dwell on my past
I gotta prepare for the change
I gotta keep my circle tight
Gotta stay away from these lames

I wanted money over fame, but I got rich and famous
I made a vow to stay the same but all these niggas changin'
Where the fuck you were when we were ridin' 'round hittin' banks
Had to put my feelings to the side 'cause all these niggas shady
And I cried a thosand times, ain't never cried in no Mercedes
I think the last time I cried, I lost my old lady, yeah

Love is somethin' you can't control
I came back to let you know
I ain't put no pressure on you
I ain't put no pressure on you

Fuck me good and then I'm gone
I came back to let you know
I ain't put no pressure on you
I ain't put no pressure on you

Baby face, he gon' hop out blammin' with a Arabian K
Bet not double dribble, you get riddled as we fade away
Made a way
Nothin' from my gangsta you could take away
I brung it back to fourth and included killers in on every play
Catch a case
He ain't built for prison, bitch, I bet he break
Bet he bring your name up as the shooter
Let that resonate
Premeditated murder on my mind, that shit like everyday
Liquidate my trophies just to see the homies levitate
Moved momma out of Section 8
Then blessings came, we blessed the game
Respect the game for what it's worth
We put in work and made it work
Forever, I'ma bang the turf
See ya sucka, spank him first
One of the homies died, the only time you'd see the gang in church

Love is somethin' you can't control
I came back to let you know
I ain't put no pressure on you
I ain't put no pressure on you

Fuck me good and then I'm gone
I came back to let you know
I ain't put no pressure on you

I ain't put no pressure on you
