

LOST IT ALL

Mozzy

If I ain't have drive
Tell me, would you still ride?
If a nigga couldn't find his way
Would you try to ride and be my light?
Seen it too many times
They always switchin' sides
If they ever left me out for dead
Would you keep my name alive?
No need to act, just play your role
You love the lights, you love the show
If shit get dark, are you gonna leave me 'lone
I gotta know

If I lost it all, would you still love me?
If I was to fall, put no one above me
It get pretty quiet when shit get ugly
Mm-hmm, when shit get ugly
If I lost it all, would you still love me?
If I was to fall, put no one above me
It get pretty quiet when shit get ugly
When shit get ugly, oh-oh, mm-hmm, mm-nah

No complaints
Know I'm not no saint but I've been keepin' faith
All I ask
Don't attempt to judge me for my evil ways
Look where I was brought up, look where I was raised, keep a thang
You ain't gotta tell me, smart enough to know I need to change
Welcome home, gave him ten bands 'cause that's my man, he did
Ten inside that can, he couldn't wait to touch 'em, get a chain
Bless his game, who gon' bless mine if I went broke today?
Is you gon' up and leave when you don't need me though? Hope you ain't (Yeah)
I been feelin' like the world been on my shoulder blades
Too much pride to ask you for assistance, what I'm 'posed to say?
Know I'm 'posed to pray but I been cattin'
If I lost it all, I know it's what's happenin'

If I lost it all, would you still love me?
If I was to fall, put no one above me
It get pretty quiet when shit get ugly
Mm-hmm, when shit get ugly
If I lost it all, would you still love me?
If I was to fall, put no one above me
It get pretty quiet when shit get ugly
When shit get ugly, oh-oh, mm-hmm, mm-nah

Struggle with me, kiss me on my tears if you my bitch for real
Ain't glorifyin', rappin' 'bout some shit that I done did for real
Internal bleedin', dealin' with some things they said'll never heal
Take your love for granted? Nah, I never will
'Cause you the truth, feds hit, threat of racketeering charges, we was bool
Never mind myself, it's 'bout Zay and Deuce, my heart and soul
Who gon' be there for 'em if I wiggle? That's the part I know
Hard to carry on without no grudges now,
, granny picked up every time I'm callin' home
It never fail

Hesitant at first and then she pay the bill
Let's toast to that
And those who stayed the course while I was in that cell, you smell

If I lost it all, would you still love me?
If I was to fall, put no one above me
It get pretty quiet when shit get ugly
Mm-hmm, when shit get ugly
If I lost it all, would you still love me?
If I was to fall, put no one above me
It get pretty quiet when shit get ugly
When shit get ugly, oh-oh, mm-hmm, mm-nah

If I lost it all, would you still love me?
If I was to fall, put no one above me
It get pretty quiet when shit get ugly, shit get ugly, shit get ugly
