

Pain & Struggle

Mozzy

Clutchin' this heat while I'm breezin' through the gutter
Cocaine but a lotta pain from the struggle
Fuck with A and T, that's why the dope game love us
Spend thousand on diamonds to remind us where we come from
Clutchin' this heat while I'm breezin' through the gutter

I'm affected by the losses but I'm built for it
If you're respected by the bosses, you a real boy
If he ain't 'bout his business, that's a lil' boy
I lost bruh and all this dope couldn't fill the void
Chasin' down with the D'Usse, pap up hit a boy
Still here and it's a blessing that I'm still a boy
Know I grip the yeeky tighter when I feel annoyed
The people show us peer love out in Illinois
If you don't know about the Mozzy, get familiar boy
Pullin' up with them snitches, fuck up your image boy
Mama told me you was soft but I ain't listen boy
Reconsider, really thought you was my nigga boy
Fuck a deal, I'm lookin' at the bigger picture boy (Uh huh)
I had to get it off the corner, y'all remember boy
Fuck is a handout? I'm goin' to get it boy (Get it boy)
Residue from the powder all on the dishes boy

Global, whole world seein' what I go through Murder and betrayal of the people I was close to Crack the seal, pour the gin on the post step
Turnin' custo's round 'cause the coke wet
Put a potato on the.45
For them bacon bits, bake a nigga so suave
No pressure, nigga, no sweat, no props
Situation did it when the AK go live
Contract killer shit, then other iller shit
I know millionaires that never seen a dealership
I put it in the bag and my homie lethal sealer shit
Smoking on glue, yeah, you guessed it, gorilla shit
I'm runnin' through the rubbers like a car lot
I was never one to run from a call out
Drown a whole block till it all rot
Y'een cut like that, not at all shocked

My lifestyle, many had it rougher than y'all
I ran up a check and then I'm fuckin' it off
AR for 15, that's a comfortable cost
You could never take it for granted when you add up the loss
He ain't shooting for the gang bang, we snatching him off
People voted me gang lord, I'm glad to be boss
Abiding by the laws, you get clapped when you talk
Ask the Sucker Side dollars, we whackin' 'em all
